Sierra Madre Flood Project Reviewed At C of C Meeting

Chester Magness, Project Planning Division Engineer at the County Flood Control District, was featured speaker at the Tuesday, January 4 breakfast meeting of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce held at the Headliner.

The engineer reviewed proposals by the District and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers for construction of improved flood control facilities in Sierra Madre Wash, including enlargement of the existing debris basin.

According to Magness, the project will consist of an underground reinforced pipe installed within existing channel right of way from Camillo Street upstream to the debris retarding structure.

Also included in the proposed contract will be excavation behind the basin to provide additional storage capacity.

Target date for start of the work by the Corps of Engineers is 1967, Magness said.

In his talk, the flood control official explained the basis of need for the project and cited reasons behind the Corps of Engineers' proposed design.

During a question and answer session, Magness commented on design criteria for the improvement, handling of existing side drainage, protection of the Sierra Madre water supply system, use of right of way after completion of the work, possible installation of a sanitary sewer system by local interests within flood control right of way, and length of time it would take to complete the project.

Chamber members were told that any interested person wishing a detailed explanation of the improvement or having a specific question about some phase of it may arrange an appointment with District engineers.

Presiding at the early morning session was Chamber president Douglas R. Delahooke.

Attractively clad in black trousers and scarlet shirts, they gave a program of original compositions, folk songs covering the subjects of mountains, canyons, rising and setting sun, with guitar accompaniment. Included in these compositions were: "The Canyon Song," "The Mountain Top," "God and the Rainbow," a guitar solo; "Keep on Tripping Mama," "House of the Rising Sun," and "If Ever There Was a Time." Council To Bare Down On Thorough Study of Wash

Would It Be Wise To Build At This Time Is the Question; Not Finances

Barney Yunc, local resident and Realtor indicated to the City Council Tuesday evening, that due to the many Capital Improvements needed in our city such as: good streets; potential of a paid fire department; police department enlargement and MWD water potential, that he was going to do everything in his power to have the building of a new Civic Center placed on the ballot for April 12 election.

Previously this was indicated to the Council in a petition carrying 1000 names, which was never processed as to its validity.

Mr. Yunc stated that he thought it was the decision of the electorate to decide whether it was "wise at this time" to build this new building. He was advised by City Attorney Martin that it would be necessary for him to obtain some 550 to 600 qualified registered voters as signers on the petition by February 3 for processing, publication and placement on the ballot. "A nice tight little endeavor," stated Yunc.

The Council then passed resolutions to the fact that they determined to build, finance and the location of the Center. This gives them the go ahead, to "look see," if they are financially able to build the building as desired, without additional expense to the taxpayer.

Sierra Madre Wash

A standing room only group argued pros and cons relative to covering the Sierra Madre Wash and insertion of a 9 foot conduit. Del Comer, president of the Foothill Areas Association, presented the Council with a book containing some 60 letters of questions and stated that many, many questions were as yet unanswered. Mayor Abernethy then appointed Councilman Frank Parks, and Councilman Severin Sorenson, with City Engineer Lockman to meet with the Association in an endeavor to obtain the answers required, before the City Council finalized its decision.

Miner Harkness, head of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team and Bill Wark, both gave the disapproval of the team in upsetting the canyon in anyway. Harkness closed his excellent presentation with the remarks, "Leave a little of the wilderness area to our children."

Real Estate Classes Start

The Pasadena Board of Realtors is conducting an up-to-date program for preparation for real estate license examinations. The ten-week educational program—including 20 lessons—will be conducted in the office of the Board of Realtors, 666 N. Los Robles, starting Jan. 7 to 9 p.m., starting Jan. 24. An important textbook is included in the nominal fee of $45.00.

Expert education is provided by Matland Bishop, local attorney, honorary member of the Pasadena Board of Realtors, and John Grech, owner of John Grech Realty, 235 N. Lake, Pasadena, prominent Pasadena realtor and past president of the Pasadena Board of Realtors.

The up-to-date program provides individual instruction, providing a very effective course for those persons interested in applying for real estate licenses. Registrations are now being accepted at the office of the Pasadena Board of Realtors, 795-7076.

Willis Tract

City Attorney Martin explained the Court decision relative to the permission of Huntington Construction Company to continue with their Tentative Tract Map toward the presentation of the final map for developing the Willis Tract. Discussion of an appeal, brought forth the recommendation of the attorney to "not proceed," however the Council did not give up their right to appeal, but authorized the City Administrator to discuss with Huntington Construction the possibilities of development under the new CUP Ordinance now in effect and report back at the next Council meeting. It was estimated it may take 18 months to go through the courts and cost somewhere in the neighborhood of over $3,000.

Other Business

First readings of Ordinance 248 and 255 were completed. The Council accepted a Promissory note from the members of Girl Scout Troop No. 528; and

Konchi Studio Now Open For Business In Sierra Madre

The opening of a new small gallery and studio of sculpture and handcraft at 40 N. Baldwin reinforces the reputation of Sierra Madre as an art colony.

The work of "Konchi," the identification signature adopted by artist Roy McConchie might best be characterized by the adjectives simplicity and feeling, and wood is his preferred medium for both sculpture and handcraft pieces.

The outstanding piece currently on view in this his first public shop studio, is one not for sale called, "Japa," a Hindu word meaning communication with God. A hooded figure without features expresses religious symbols which combine the Christian background of the artist with many other religions; it is made of laminated pieces of Philippine mahogany set on a base of apitong wood, which has a subtle scent growing stronger in a closed room.

Its finish has the meticulous care of the traditional, its flowing simplicity conveys too much of an image to be labeled abstract. It is very much a part of Konchi's credo that the philosophy and emotion behind the type and care of finish are also important, not just the reason for choice of form. Actually, he blends the two in his technique, since he frequently does some of the shaping itself in the process of careful sanding.

After the all-hand sanding with suitable materials

Cub Pack 381 Awards Named

At a recent meeting of Cub Scout Pack 381 at Sierra Madre School Auditorium, awards were presented for the best Genius Kit constructions. First prize was shared by Terry Helmbrock, Den 8, and Steve Ubell, Den 5; second prize: John Donoghue, Den 5, and Billy Sullivan, Den 1; third prize: Richard Garbaccio, Den 4, and Victor Faco, Den 3. Each boy, working with his dad, fashioned from an odd assortment of parts anything from a covered wagon to a space craft to a working game. Each boy worked with the same assortment of odd pieces and was required to use all pieces. The parts consisted of sheets of colored plastic, blocks of fiberboard, foam, nails, staples, insulation, clothespins, etc.—about 200 pieces in all.

Jack Stumpf chairman of Good Turn Day, reported that 227 bags of usable clothing were collected by Cubs of Pack 381. This clothing was turned over to the Salvation Army, Goodwill Industries, St. Vincent de Paul, and Volunteers of America for distribution to the needy.

Attendance award for the evening went to Den 5 with all of its eight Cubs and 18 guests present.

Due to a recent resignation, the pack needs a new chairman. Call Cubmaster Ed Puhlman, 355-2673, for further information on this position.

Pack 381 meets again at Sierra Madre School on Jan. 21 at 7:30 p.m.

Stop Ordered March 23; Suit Entered September 23

Henry V. McNulty, owner and operator of the Huntington Construction Company, Arcadia, won a victory this week in the California Superior Court, when it ordered the City of Sierra Madre to allow the developer to proceed with the Tentative Map of Tract 29402, the Willis Property at the northern head of Baldwin Avenue, and along Carter.

This was a hard fought battle for Mr. McNulty and the owner of the property Mr. Willis, ending with the decision after almost 18 months of negotiation with the City, Planning Commission and the opposition from the Citizens for a Safe and Beautiful Sierra Madre.

Hearing after hearing with pros and cons that lasted for hours, with deep thinking and consideration on the part of the City Council, Henry McNulty was granted the Tentative Tract Map approval on January 26, 1965, by the City Council, on a vote of 5-0, who at that point reversed the Planning Commission on their denial. The approval carried 24 conditions, with 23 of the conditions to be complied with and satisfactory reports received for hearing before the Final Tract Map is approved. The 24th provision was that half of the 42-acre area must be completed before the second half could be started. The developer, wholeheartedly agreed with all of the conditions.

At the close of this meeting of the Council, the Mayor, then Sorenson, stated, "We hereby give you the opportunity to spend an additional 40 to 50 thousand dollars to prove to us beyond a doubt, that your sub-division is sound, feasible and will protect the health, safety and welfare of the residents of our city. And when this is done, very little objection remains and the Final Tract Map will then be a necessity."

Fighting for the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the city, a citizens committee presenting themselves as "Citizens for a Safe and Beautiful Sierra Madre," used every point of their knowledge to stop the development of this area

Of course this is the 13th of January, but it has taken me about this long to get well after New Year . . . Wow, what a celebration!

We read all about the "drunken" chicken that was featured at Casa Janara, Mexican restaurant in Arcadia, so, wife Peggy decided that would be the item that we would have for our New Year's Party.

I truthfully believe that I would have straightened out much sooner after the party, but to go along with the drunken chicken, we had "stewed" tomatoes and "pickled" beets. Again, this might not have been so bad if she hadn't thrown in "smashed" potatoes and ended up with "stewed" prunes for dessert. Added to this were "Shirley Temples" and I'm a tellin' you when the party was over I had just about had it . . . I can't look a stewed tomato in the face . . . know what I mean?

Just in case you were not aware of it . . . The Internal Revenue Service celebrated its 100th anniversary a couple of weeks ago . . . Tax officials noted with downheartedness the fact that no one . . . no, not a single one sent them a card with "best wishes" . . . my, my, my, this makes me downhearted, also.

Seems to me there is a lot of talk about air pollution these days, but, folks, let me tell you something . . . you haven't heard anything yet . . . just wait until the 1966 political campaigns get started . . . this should stir up a foggy situation.

So now you know where we get our weather, rainfall and all, and let me tell you here, Charlie Askew is one helluva swell fellow, cooperates to the finest degree in seeking out information.

Just to help Charlie out, we again tell you that rainfall in Sierra Madre is figured from October 1 to October 1, so keep this in mind when you are making any comparisons. The Navy uses the dates of July 1 to July 1, and the U.S. Weather Bureau figures from January 1 to January 1, so there you have it.

One of our dignitaries, having returned from Las Vegas, but not wishing his name mentioned brought back the following story that he states is absolutely true fact . . . and it goes something like this . . .

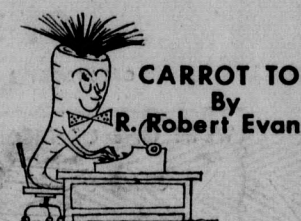

A beautiful chorus girl sued a wealthy man in Las Vegas for breach of promise and the judge hearing the case awarded her $100,000.

As the chorus girl left the courtroom and started to cross the street, she was hit by an automobile and suffered eight broken ribs.

Three months later in the same courtroom and the same judge, she was awarded $800 damages.

As explained by our Sierra Madiran, the moral of this story is . . . Never play

Girl Scout Troop Signs Promissory Note To City

First of our local Girl Scout Troops to sign up for the "promissory note" for service to community, school or church, which troops all over the nation will undertake during 1966, is Troop 528, which has presented to the city of Sierra Madre their individually signed agreement to construct a nature trail in Bailey Canyon.

Mrs. Margaret Morash of 405 Manzanita, leader of the troop, explained that it is hoped eventually to create a spot in this still natural canyon which will provide facilities for overnight camping for young people. The creation of a nature trail by Girl Scout Troop 528 will be the first step toward this goal. This troop consists of sixth graders from Sierra Madre Elementary School.

The troop has agreed to furnish whatever hours may be necessary to complete the initial trail in June, of this year. Mrs. Morash is to have a conference with Ken Kincaid of Sierra Madre, a naturalist with the McCurdy Nature Center of Eaton Canyon County Park, who has been loaned to the troop for counseling about the trail.

At a recent meeting of the troops in this neighborhood, Dick Dodge of Sierra Madre Parks and Recreation Department, talked with leaders, and at their request mentioned various other ways to be of help to residents of the area, so similar projects should soon be forthcoming.

The Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club had a program on lung cancer in relation to smoking, for its first meeting of 1966.

The program was furnished by this area's chapter of the American Cancer Society.

Bill Lockwood, program chairman of the club, introduced Dr. H. William Flister, M.D., of the Pasadena Tumor Institute, who showed a movie and then gave a talk on the subject. It was extremely interesting and educational.

President Bob Hatfield and past president Dr. Dave Kirkpatrick attended Division 35 board meeting in El Monte, where plans were made for the coming year.

Rinses are not intended to change basic hair colors, but to intensify, tone down or brighten natural color. Also, rinses are sometimes utilized to cover gray.

The actual changing of color from a very dark to a very light, for example, calls for a process known as pre-bleaching. This is a complicated step which removes the natural color of the hair and puts in its place the new, lighter color.

Outstanding color changes are a specialty where skilled personnel, facilities and techniques necessary for striking and tasteful color change is available to you, at PETITE BEAUTY SALON... 184 West Sierra Madre Blvd. Phone EL 5-8041... Our new VAPOR-ZONE machine combines ultraviolet and Hydrogen Peroxide vapor into a health giving, cleansing mist which does wonders for the hair, scalp and complexion... Open 6 days... Thursday Evenings by appointment.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: Rather than wring out nylons after rinsing, try squeezing them dry between bath towels.

A very special Christmas present came in the form of a husky baby boy to Dr. and Mrs. Victor R. Cuccia of 513 Sierra Keys Drive, Sierra Madre.

This new arrival made his debut into the world Friday, Dec. 24, Christmas Eve, at the Huntington Memorial Hospital. He has been given the name Brandon Victor, and he weighed in at 7 pounds, 13 ounces. This is the couple's first child.

Paternal grandparents awaiting the arrival of little Brandon are Mr. and Mrs. Luke P. Cuccia and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Swanson.

Bridge Section Shakespeare Club

Have you taken or needed any QUININE lately?

QUININE is being used in large amounts to treat the malaria which has been contracted by some of our troops in Viet Nam. A particular highland strain of P. falciparum has proved resistant to Choloquin and Primaquin (most effective drugs for treating malaria), and has felled more than 1500 soldiers to date. Quinine seems to be the only effective agent for treatment, and is being used at Walter Reed Hospital and in the Philippine hospital bases. This, combined with the shore supply of quinine imports from Indonesia has caused prices to climb and stocks to become depleted, causing the price of bulk quinine to skyrocket 5 to 10-fold.

We at Hartman Pharmacy have a reasonable supply in all sizes and will be able to take care of the ordinary needs of all our customers.

With the possible exception of Quinine, our nation has come a long way since World War I in becoming not only self-sufficient, but the real leader in producing the best medication for its citizens of any country in the world. Our scientists do produce the best and also the safest ones too, before being released to the medical profession for your prescriptions, and they are constantly tested and watched for your protection. We at Hartman Pharmacy are proud to be a part of this health team.

AS
SEES IT

A BACKWARD
GLANCE AT 1965

IT WAS THE NIGHT of Oct. 23, 1965. Old Hankus and friend Lou Pontarelli sat in the Coliseum and watched a smooth running UCLA grid machine roll to an easy 35-3 halftime lead over California's Bears. Gary Beban and company could do no wrong striking from all angles on long runs and longer passes.

At the same time at Horrell Field, Tom Hamilton's Pasadena High School grid-ders were valiantly attempting to keep their unbeaten record clean against a tough Burbank eleven. Not only had the Bulldogs won four straight but only Arroyo had been able to tally versus the staunch PHS defense.

AS THE HALFTIME gun sounded in the Coliseum Hank and Lou made a mad dash for their car and gunned off in the direction of the PCC campus. As they walked through the gates the scoreboard read PHS 6, Burbank 0. The fourth period was just getting underway and the visitors had the ball at the midfield stripe.

A big Burbank back barreled around his own left end and seemed headed for open ground. The PHS lead, gained earlier on a Skip Robinson dash to paydirt, seemed threatened for sure. Hankus had just finished telling Lou to keep an eye on the linebacker, Jimmy Garland.

Garland had dropped back to cover a possible pass receiver but was now headed full steam toward the Burbank runner. The 175-pounder, after covering some 20 yards in "nothing flat," launched himself through the air at the enemy ball-carrier.

The halfback dropped in a heap, the ball bounced into the hands of a Pasadena defender and the Bulldog victory was assured. Garland's great defensive work typified the aggressive PHS play that carried them to the CIF semi-finals. It was a team that on paper "didn't figure for the upper division" but on heart were winners all the way.

OLD HANKUS would have to list the "unbelievable" play of the Los Angeles Dodgers high on his list of thrills for 1965. Sure he had picked them no better than seventh in pre-season predictions, but they are still "good guys," Walter Aillon is one of his favorite people, and after all, didn't he see Don Drysdale pitch his first major league game in Connie Mack Stadium?

THE SANDY KOUFAX-BOB HENDLEY pitching duel must go down as the top of the year, though Hankus much prefers a high-scoring contest as a rule. It may be awhile before you see a game where one hurler fires a no-hitter and the other allows just a single bingle. Of course Koufax was full of thrills all season. The Jim Gilliam "stopper" in the final game of the series will also long be remembered.

A LANKY END by the name of Margene Adkins provided 60 minutes of thrills on December 11. The kangaroo-like pass snagger almost paced Henderson County to an upset victory in the 20th Junior Rose Bowl, but Fullerton's powerful Hornets upheld the prestige of the West for a 20-15 decision. The nifty throng of 50,098 was also a particular thrill for Old Hankus.

NATIVE DIVER, the sleek black gelding who has shattered every stakes victory record in California, provided something extra special everytime he went to

Bethany Church News

Dr. Robert N. Schaper, pastor of Bethany Church of Sierra Madre, will conclude his current series of messages on the Book of Hebrews at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services when he preaches on the theme, "The Way To Live." The services will be held in the sanctuary of the church located at 93 N. Baldwin. At the 7 p.m. worship hour, Pastor Schaper will speak on, "The Church That Succeeded."

The church is currently expanding its facilities as work continues on a new 7500 foot youth educational building. The framing has been completed with sub-contractors working on utility installations. The new 52-car combination parking lot and playground area has been finished for use.

At the church's annual business meeting tomorrow night the congregation is expected to approve an increase of 12 per cent in the general fund budget. The church's missionary commitment is nearly $32,000, an increase of 10 per cent above that of 1965. New officers will be elected and annual reports heard from the several church boards and pastoral staff.

Bethany Church is an evangelical, independent congregation serving the community of Sierra Madre and surrounding area for the past 47 years. Visitors are cordially invited to any of the above services as well as Sunday school at 9:40 a.m. and weekday graded activities.

Congregational Sermon-Topic Sunday, Jan. 16

"Stay in Crete" will be the topic of the sermon to be delivered by Interim minister, Shelby J. Light, during the 10 a.m. worship service of the Congregational Church of Sierra Madre on Sunday, Jan. 16.

In addition to the singing of the Chancel Choir, the Junior Choir will be featured. Under the leadership of Mrs. Doris Murphy, the fourth and fifth grade youngsters will sing "Onward Christian Soldiers." Serving as acolytes will be Junior Choir members Susan Beavers and Cynthia Frey.

The Fellowship Committee, under the chairman-ship of Messrs. and Mmes. Stan Hutchinson and Ken Carlson, is planning the first Fellowship Supper of the new year for Sunday, Jan. 23.

Lesson-Sermon Topic 'Life' Sunday, Jan. 16

"Life," one of the key terms through which Christian Scientists seek a deeper understanding of the nature of God, is the subject of this week's lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches. Other key synonyms for God to be taken up in succeeding weeks are: Truth, Love, Spirit, Soul, Mind.

"Ignorance of God is no longer the stepping-stone to faith," states the denomination's textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy. "The only guarantee of obedience is a right apprehension of Him Whom to know aright is Life eternal."

The Golden Text is from I John and reads: "This is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in His Son."

Rev. Armin Hesse Announces Jan. 16 Sermon-Theme

On the next three Sundays of this Epiphany season of the church year, the Rev. Armin Hesse will speak on "Christ's Epiphany Glory," at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive.

His sermon message in the 10:30 service on Sunday morning will be "Christ's Epiphany Glory in the Home." In commenting on this theme, he states:

"Some Christians fail to recognize the revelation of Christ's glory in their own homes. Perhaps in their minds they have confined Christ in the church building, and have never asked Him into their homes. There is a great difference when Christ is the guest in the home, as His presence in the home at Cana of Galilee on the occasion of the marriage festival demonstrates."

In the midweek Bible Hour on Wednesday evening at 7:30, the pastor will continue his discussions on "Current Theological Issues," in the Lutheran Church. The Sunday school staff will meet on Wednesday night at 8:30. The Adult Church Membership Study Class will convene on Thursday evening at 8.

Second of Series To Be Presented By Dr. Barnhart

"The Power of the Teaching of The Santa Anita Church" is the subject of the second of a series being presented by Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister, Sunday at the 11 a.m. Worship Service, January 16 at the Santa Anita Church, 226 W. Colorado Boulevard, Arcadia. The public is welcomed. For your convenience, infants and small children are cared for during the service.

Graded classes in Religious Education are held at 11 a.m. every Sunday for youth from kindergarten through high school. All youth join with their parents and other adults in the sanctuary for the first 15 minutes of worship. After a sermonette by Dr. Barnhart they go to their graded classes. All youth are welcome.

A ten-week course in the philosophy of Emerson and a ten-week course in the Interpretation of the New Testament begin Wednesday, January 12. These are tutorial classes open to the public. Please call the church for detailed information. Each class will be open for enrollment the first three Wednesdays. After that, classes are closed. "If we may pray with you and for you, please call Dial-for-Prayer, HI 7-6162, day or night," says Dr. Barnhart.

Girl Scouts Sign Note To City

News that Mrs. L. E. Popp, also a resident, will be chairman of the annual special event for this area, which embraces some 29 troops in all, from Sierra Madre School, Sierra Mesa, Don Benito, St. Rita's and, newly recruited, Ascension School. At the latter, Mrs. Spencer Edwards is leader for both a Cadet and a Brownie Troop, and among the new members is a girl from Argentina, who is thus really acquiring a picture of the American way.

This year's special event, which will feature displays of the various projects troop members have completed toward their badges, promises to be an exciting community occasion, for not only is it expected that Memorial Park will be the site for the two-day weekend event, scheduled for March 11 and 12, but it is planned that an "overnight" will be held right there in the park, with either tents or sleeping bags. Mrs. Dorothy Waldron, area advisor for the Pasadena area has okayed this plan, Dodge has added his approval, and it is expected that the city will add official permission. It is the national custom, for this annual week-end event, which begins National Girl Scout Week, for troop members to attend church together that Sunday morning, so Sierra Madre should have some considerably expanded congregations on the morning of March 12.

The next Neighborhood Area meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, January 18, at 9:15 a.m. at the Park House. Further information may be obtained by calling the publicity chairman, Mrs. K. E. Wagner, at 355-6963.

Konchi Studio Now Open For Business

Konchi shops carefully for the grains he wants in woods, and his use of lamination on occasion is to utilize grain and achieve "color" in the wood. He has experimented interestingly with feather rock for bases, attacking its resistant surface with a tree hacksaw and old screw drivers, in order not to wreck better tools.

He has also played some with metal, calls one small concoction, "Poverty Program," since it was inspired by what he saw of the art show on the lawn of the White House, and the Sculpture Symposium, first in this country, held last summer at the State College at Long Beach.

Here for so-called "monumental art," men were working with everything from nuts and bolts to old teapots and stovepipes. These materials are not for him.

Roy McConchie was raised in Natchez, Mississippi, till he was 13, at which time the family split up because of his mother's illness, and he was sent to a great-aunt in California, where he remained only three years before he went to sea. His sea days lasted a decade, and this is his third career, since he also had a period as a gourmet cook.

As Ives Sees It

the post. L. K. Shapiro's beauty hung up seven stakes wins in 1965 stretching his mark to 24, an all-time high. Most exciting victory came on May 22 when he nipped Viking Spirit by a neck in a record 1:20 timing for the seven furlongs at Hollywood Park.

THE UCLA BRUINS provided their share of thrills in 1965. John Wooden's quintet raced to the National title behind Gail Goodrich. Tommy Prothro's gridders showed the top comeback of the year, and did it in the final four minutes as they scored twice to take the Rose Bowl bid away from the Trojans. Then there was the 37-34 "heart-stopper" with Tennessee that would be hard to beat. The 14-12 win over Michigan State will of course be recorded in the 1966 annals.

THERE WAS the day Willie Mays acted as the "dove of peace" after Juan Marichal has creased Johnny Roseboro's skull with a bat. Of course just watching Mays play the game is a thrill. . . . Gary Player's magnificent gesture as he returned his $26,000 check after winning the National Open in St. Louis. Player donated $5,000 to cancer relief, $20,000 to junior golf and the other grand went to his caddy.

JACK NICKLAUS was sensational in the Masters. . . . Bob Allison's World Series catch. . . . The brilliant fielding of Bobby Knoop and his improved hitting for the Angels. . . . All sports thrills of 1965.

TOP PERSONAL SPORTS

THRILL for Old Hankus would have to be the great night he rolled his 697 series at the Bahama Lanes including a final game 275. His 82 at Santa Anita wasn't bad for a guy who averages around 92 on the links.

HOW'S THIS FOR A SPORTS ODDITY? Robin Hood, 17, was barred from an archery tournament at Leamington, England. The organizers told him the minimum entry age was 18.

Editorially Speaking...

Faith Is Our Mainstay

"Today, our priceless heritage of freedom is under relentless attack both at home and abroad." The words are those of J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, taken from an address recently made on his being awarded the Grand Cross of the Scottish Rite. He went on to detail where attacks of various kinds are in being—in Southeast Asia, in Europe and the Near East, Central and South America. In all these vast areas, it has been necessary to use American power in effort to stem the Communist tide.

And here at home the Communist problem is not, Mr. Hoover obviously believes, a small one. "Communism," he says, "is a vast international conspiracy that today dominates one-third of the earth's people. Here, in our own country, that conspiracy is represented by the Communist Party, U.S.A., a bold and defiant band of anti-American turncoats whose operations are directed and controlled by the Kremlin in Moscow."

Mr. Hoover flatly denies that Communism is a legitimate political organization. As he sees it, the party constitutes a foreign outpost on our shores. He cites, in evidence, such Communist objectives as withdrawal from South Viet Nam, noninterference with Communist terrorists in Santo Domingo, and appeasement of the whole Marxist world.

In this country, Mr. Hoover reports, the Communists are especially eager to win recruits among American youth and are confident they can do so. The party has placed heavy emphasis on campus speech programs in which skilled speakers woo young people. He gives several examples. In one case, the speaker told his young audience the Berlin Wall had been built to hold back undesirables from the West who were infiltrating East Germany!

Mr. Hoover adds that "It is one of the glaring contradictions of our day that the same Communist spokesmen who are so glibtongued in their appearances before college students immediately lose their voices when placed under oath in a court of law or before a committee of Congress. They always take refuge behind the fifth amendment. Our moral atmosphere would be better if they knew as much about the Ten Commandments . . ."

The substance of his address is that we must choose between law and anarchy; freedom and chaos. He finds danger that this country is being swept by an epidemic of spiritual malnutrition. The massive increase in crime is certainly an indication of that. He sees grave weaknesses in the operation of the courts—"Too many of our judges seek out technicalities rather than guilt or innocence."

His answer is suggested in these words: "Faith is our mainstay in the ideological struggle now raging between the camps of godless Communism and human freedom."

"And faith remains our strongest bulwark against the criminal and subversive enemies who would destroy our priceless heritage of liberty and justice for all. But faith without work will be of no avail—there must be unity of purpose."

"America will continue to progress in dignity and freedom so long as our people cherish liberty and justice and truth and honor God."

How Big!

Just how big is the war in Viet Nam? How much bigger will it become? How long may we expect it to last? What will be the ultimate cost in men, material and money?

These are potent questions to which you may find a wide variety of answers. But there is a more or less general consensus where a considerable area of agreement is reached. And it works down to about this:

The war is bigger in its potential than in the actuality. In other words, a U.S. failure in Viet Nam, or a U.S. withdrawal, would amount to a world-communist victory of stupefying proportions. All of southeast Asia would then be open to communist conquest by easy step after easy step. So, eventually, might a vast area of the Pacific, including the Philippines, Australia and New Zealand. In all probability, the long-run beneficiary would be Red China.

As to the war's duration, there are some optimists. They think victory will follow in the foreseeable future, but they are in the minority. The majority of the reporters, public officials, and others who have observed the war first hand anticipate that it will be of long duration. The communist forces have a number of assets—in the terrain, which is perfectly suited to prolonged guerrilla warfare; in the modern weapons they are receiving from communist powers; in the unstable political situation in South Viet Nam; in the apparent indifference of numbers of the South Vietnamese people as to who wins or loses; and in their brutal use of terror and torture to control the villages and to strange dissent and rebellion.

There can only be guesses as to the costs in men and money to the United States. Those who have followed the course of the war have noticed a vastly important change in its direction and character. In an earlier day, the South Vietnamese forces were aided only by a comparatively small number of American advisors. No organized American battle forces were involved. Now more and more of the brunt of the fighting is being conducted by American units, such as the airborne cavalry. As of a late report, we had some 160,000 troops in Viet Nam, and the figure increases. Inevitably, the American casualties grow, though, according to the official reports from Saigon and the Pentagon, they are far less than those suffered by the enemy. No one can now foretell the economic costs.

The biggest question is what course will now be taken. Here there seems to be little agreement. As James Reston writes, "The day-to-day communiques give the impression that we win almost every encounter, but we somehow merely advance deeper into the bog. The result is that . . . nobody is satisfied with the way things are going. The people who want a negotiated settlement are not satisfied. Those who want savage air attacks on the industrial sectors around Hanoi and Haiphong are not satisfied. And those who follow the present compromise policy have to concede at the end of the monsoon season that 'blunting' the Viet Cong offensive has not achieved the stated objective of bringing the enemy to the negotiating table."

For many years a hard core segment of American liberalism has been belching forth the misconception that conservatives are against everything. This line has been swallowed and quickly re-belched by almost every mis-guided liberal underling in our country. Liberal politicians (both Republican and Democrat) have discovered that their ill conceived policies can be more easily developed and sold to their trusting constituents by painting conservatism as a totally negative political philosophy.

The fact that Americans are basically conservative represents more than passing concern to those who would usher in a socialist society based solely on mass security. It appears to bug these apostles of foreign political doctrine that most Americans are anti-Communist, anti-Socialist and anti-Atheist.

It would appear reasonable to assume that individuals so prone to pin-pointing their political opposition's affinity to sinful negativism, would themselves possess an impeccable record based upon a purely constructive positive approach. However, history proves that this assumption is not true.

Liberalism, from its vociferous hard core to its peripheral dupeniks, has a record riddled with negativism of the worst kind!

Liberals have admitted by their own words and their own actions to being anti-Congressional investigating committees, anti J. Edgar Hoover and FBI, anti loyalty oaths, anti effective law enforcement and anti curtailment of Communists and communist influences.

The latest embellishments of modern liberalism have included sit-ins, teach-ins, walk-outs, demonstrations against our defense of South Viet Nam, numerous acts of "giving aid and comfort" to our enemy, attempts to supply the Viet Cong with American blood plasma and, last but not least, the refusal of the U.S. (Liberal) Supreme Court to force all Communists to register.

There you have it and it adds up to one more "anti" — ANTI AMERICANISM!

Payment In Full
Before the firing-squad, the Liberal cried:
"But I was your best friend! I patched each rift
With peace and co-existence, and I tied Earth in pink ribbons for your birthday gift!
I introduced you into Academe
In freedom's name, I called your social creed 'A Christian heresy.'
And the Supreme Court of the land — my court — served every need
You ever had. How can you now forget
That I had rather once be Red than dead?
Who now am both? You owe me such a debt
God could not pay me . . . and you pay in lead."
The Commissar-in-Charge said merely: "Fool!" —
Your use to us is over once we rule."
—E. Merrill Root.

Honest Abe appeared to foresee 20th Century liberal "logic" when he said:
"He reminds me of the man who murdered both his parents and then, when sentence was about to be pronounced, pleaded for mercy on the grounds that he was an orphan."

If this nation, under God, is to have a new birth of freedom, it is up to Congress to get the present Supreme Court out of the delivery room.
—Dean Clarence Manion

The louder he talked of his honor, the faster we counted our spoons.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson

A public school teacher who entered her classroom after lunch saw a group of small boys kneeling on the floor and huddled together. She asked:
"What are you doing?"
"We're just shooting dice," was the reply.

"Oh," said the teacher with a sight of relief. "That's all right. I was afraid you were engaged in prayer."

Now that the gay party season has come to a screaming halt the talk is turning back again to the grim world situation. Do you ever get the feeling that you are a useless pawn in the hands of expert manipulators. With fighting wars, industrial wars, and wars of corruption it would be a simple thing to slip into an attitude of complete wall-off indifference in an effort to shut out the outside forces that are slowly but surely governing our entire existence.

This would be the simple, easy approach. I can't think of anything that would make us, the little people, go down for the third time any faster than public apathy. I heard someone say the other day with a deep, deep, sigh that it seemed as if you had to fight an uphill battle for everything decent that life had to offer.

Admittedly that statement is a little broad, but in effect there is a great deal of truth involved. But if that is the only way decency and honor can be bought then that is the path we must follow; we have no choice.

We may not be able to give our children the world all tied up with neat clean ribbons, without the thorns of strife, but we can give them a heritage of fighting for decency, honor, and honesty. It is their right and our obligation. It is the basic reason that people migrated to this country, and the spirit that has held this country strong and proud.

We may be little people, you and I, with but little voices, but we are many. As long as we raise those voices we will not drown — flounder at times yes, but we like the salmon will make it up-stream!

On to the lighter side . . . Roger and Coleene Hopkins of Windover Road spent last weekend vacationing in Santa Barbara after a full and exciting holiday season.

TAKE YOUR PROBLEMS TO CHURCH THIS WEEK—millions leave them there!

PROBABLY COMING DOWN WITH SOMETHING!

Even a frown can worry Mother. And when he has a fever—she always fears the worst!

Did you know, Mother, that more children fall victim to the crippling diseases we dread? It has wrecked the fond hopes and bold dreams of hundreds of thousands of parents.

Yet it isn't a disease, at all! It is a HESITATION; hesitating to start our child in Church School, hesitating to go with him and worship God, hesitating to discuss at home the need for moral and religious foundation for the whole family.

Face it today! Do something about it next Sunday! Choose YOUR church. And make it YOUR church. And through a lifetime of worship and faith it can be for your child . . . HIS church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

You and Your Neighbor ... During Holiday Season

by Mary-Madeleine Laphier

The family of James and Olivine Davis, 420 E. Laurel had their Christmas feast at the home of Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, in Altadena. When it comes to New Year's, it's a birthday party at this home, for Michael, now three, was born on that day. Two year old Doralee was born day after Valentine's, so guess Mr. Davis never forgets the hearts and flowers day.

The former Mrs. yvonne Hamerschmidt, now Mrs. Michael Dooley scarcely had time to return from her honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and Reno before it was Thanksgiving and the holiday season, but with the practiced hand of a mother of three (Robert, Vicky and Denise, in this case) she swung into traditional festivities with the gift of accomplishment which has made her known as a most effective leader for the March of Dimes. Guests for the big day at her home at 275 E. Orange Grove were her mother, Mrs. Marie Robert, from Hollywood, accompanied by a niece, Mrs. Louise Evans and her daughter Kathleen; her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Ralphs from Gorman, and their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bunnell from Monrovia.

Miss Lulu M. Moore, 158 N. Baldwin, known to so many here because of her work when she was head librarian of our Sierra Madre library, was hostess on Christmas Day to her sister-in-law and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hougardy, from Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Crowe, 95 W. Olive Ave., there were visitors all the way from Quincy, Mass.—and its snows. These were the parents of Mrs. Crowe, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Diamond, who had a fine time with grandchildren Patricia, Nancy and Kathleen while they were waiting to see the Tournament of Roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Porter of 685 W. Alegria, with son James entertained the Sierra Madre family of their married son, Mr. and Mrs. David Porter and John, and friends from Whittier, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Sager and Sharon.

The big bash, a buffet dinner, on December 18 at the Victor Sinclair's 425 N. Cañon Drive, included guests known to many of the city. There were Cañon Drive neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. John Angus and Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Galpin of San Marino, formerly of Hastings Ranch; Mr. and Mrs. Art Kinder, also of San Marino; Mr. and Mrs. James Jenkins; Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Souther; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fahey and Mr. and Mrs. Will Fleeman, both of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Jack McKenna of Kenaloe Estates; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rhodes of Arcadia; Mr. and Mrs. Oren Lane of San Pedro; Mr. and Mrs. Len Cox, of Beverly Hills, and Mrs. Louise Fornaciari of San Marino, (Paul had to stay home with son Bert, who'd broken his leg skiing).

Stream Stocked With Trout

Anglers searching for trout have at least one thousand to tempt their skill, and they can thank the recent rain for making it possible, Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli said today.

The California Department of Fish and Game has stocked the smaller lake in the Whittier Narrows Legg Lake complex with some 500 pounds of trout, and there is promise for more depending on the water temperature there, the Supervisor noted.

The role of the free newspaper is misrepresented perennially by politicians who lose elections. Often the distorted picture is deliberate, because experienced public officials know better.

They know that the press attempts to be as fair as possible in its news columns. But a public which does not always understand the various functions of its newspaper may be misled by half-truths.

Traditionally, the free editor reserves the right to express his own opinion in editorials. The "stand" of the newspaper is judged by editorial expression. Yet, in news sections, and in letters to the editor, more space is often given to an opposing viewpoint ... and this was never more true than with your own Sierra Madre News.

I was talking to Earl T. Knowles the other day ... you know, Earl is our new Worshipful Master of Sierra Madre Lodge No. 408. F & AM ... anyway, Earl made the following remark ... "you know, horsepower was much safer in the days when only horses had it" ... and I do suppose this is true, but I wonder where "horsensense stands" these days compared ...

Well, as usual, it comes time to close the column, and as expected I guess you depend on me to end up with some bit of advice ... but I am up that well known creek without a paddle, so I will close with a bit of a remark about "Women," that being my favorite subject anyway.

"Women are acting and living more like men every day, and it's fine with me. If I am comfortably settled, why should I get up to light their cigarettes?" ... Like Ben Miller of Sierra Madre Paint and Wallpaper said to me the other day ... "Bob, do men really make passes at girls who wear glasses?" ... My only answer at the moment was ... "Well, Ben, it usually depends upon the frames." ... I hope, I hope, I hope.

Lawyers' Wives Day At Races Luncheon Jan. 21

Mrs. Gerald Luhman, president of the Lawyers' Wives of San Gabriel Valley, urges everyone to support the local Legal Aid while enjoying a Charity Day at the Races at Santa Anita Park on Friday, January 21. Tickets to the clubhouse luncheon terrace are on sale now at $5 per person by the Lawyers' Wives.

Shortly after the gates open at 11 a.m., members and friends will assemble for a leisurely lunch before the first race begins at 12:30 p.m. All proceeds from the sale will benefit the Western San Gabriel Valley Legal Aid office at 824 E. Main St., Alhambra. The first $500 raised this year will go directly toward operating expenses. All monies over this amount will be spent on office furnishing under the direction of Mrs. Jack Swafford, legal aid chairman, who also schedules the many volunteer workers who assist in the operation of the office. Enlarged office space this year leaves much to be done to ensure the privacy and comfort of those seeking legal help through this agency.

Tickets may be obtained by calling the chairman of the day, Mrs. William Shaw 1435 Mirasol Drive, San Marino (286-3929), or co-chairman, Mrs. Samuel A. Greenburg, 1555 Hillcrest, Pasadena (449-6322), who solicits support for this community service from all local citizens.

The average life of to day's car battery is 24 months, compared with only 18 months 15 years ago.

Sierra Madre Has New Art Shop In Town

Actually, his sculpture and work with wood has been a continuing evolution, for he cannot remember when he did not carve things, from wood to soap. Although there were no artists in the family, his grandfather was a skilled cabinetmaker and a boat builder, so perhaps this influenced his feeling for wood. Certainly what he has learned has been in the practical school of doing rather than that of academic theory, for Konchi has not had formal art training as such. He made model boats, the kind where each part is handmade, and ships in bottle, so his hands have had long training in their deftness.

Mrs. McConchi has returned to the City of Hope as a social worker for her third stint there, which influenced the couple's choice of location for their first studio. Previously Konchi's work had been shown in their home at Long Beach. The couple were married only a little over a year ago at Carmel, which they loved, but are very glad that Sierra Madre is their choice.

From time to time Konchi will produce small pieces for the home, hopes to create unique lamps, will eventually sell bonzai trees and unusual candles, and plans to present exhibits which will be exchanged with artists in other cities. He is perhaps as much philosopher as artist and is deeply interested in the reactions and comments of all people, including children, who see his work, so he really means his expressed hope that people will visit the gallery just to look.

"Words don't say to me what they do to others," he admitted. "My wife will re-write something many times. I have to find other means to express myself. I shape wood and polish it to say something; or, like others, discover something, an unusual piece of driftwood, a rock shaped by wind, which only needs to be polished and properly set off."

Woman's Unit of Dental Society Luncheon Jan. 18

The Woman's Auxiliary to the San Gabriel Valley Dental Society will hold their January 18th luncheon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Sharp, 1928 Montezuma Way, West Covina, at 11:30 a.m.

Mrs. Richard Young, president, invites prospective members and guests to attend. For reservations call Barbara Camplin at 331-1481.

by Mary-Madeleine Lanthier

When you have four children and a multitude of friends, there is so much going on over the holidays that it seems a blur, though a bright one in retrospect. So Patricia Ferber, who lives with husband Kurt and children Debbie, Kurt, Nancy and Janna at 269 Rancho, would rather look forward to new activities in a new year. One of these for her will be much singing, as she has joined the William Hall Chorale and will be singing with this group at the Music Center at the Ojai music festival in the spring.

Mrs. Morris Taquino arrived by plane to spend the holidays with her son Thomas and his wife Rose Mary at their home on Toyon Road. The children, Paul, Jeanne and David had not seen their grandmother since last Christmas, so they had a festive time, enhanced by the recent visit, also, of their uncle, Dr. Maurice Taquino from Biloxi.

The new year brought new officers for the Sierra Madre TOPS Club. Mrs. Richard Moore, outgoing president, installed these at a banquet on January 3 at Levi's Steak House. Officers are: Jane Buchan, president; Nancy Throop, vice president; Betty Scharf, secretary and Pat Scott, treasurer. Janice Moore is currently busy caring for the new batch of baby ducks which hatched on Christmas.

Speaking of people coming a distance to spend the holidays in Sierra Madre... the mother of Anne Klein, Mrs. Wilda Westerman, flew from England to arrive here on Christmas Eve. Further, Mrs. Klein's father had just been released from the hospital, and the Klein boys, Phil and Paul were home from their first experience at Harding Military School in Glendora, so you can imagine what a celebration father Albert presided over at 470 Grand View. The quiet of a house suddenly emptied of two lively boys had pushed Anne to going to school four nights a week.

Janice Englert, now a junior at UC Santa Barbara, not only got to visit the family, Pat and Robert Englert of 495 E. Laurel, but had a quick trip to Virginia to spend holiday time with her mother there.

Betty and Donald Stuart, new owners of Clardon's on Baldwin, are one couple who were glad to get some rest over the holidays, so busy were they, due to the growing reputation of their food. None-the-less, they made the traditional visit to Betty's mother, Mrs. Margaret Wulfehl in La Canada, with whom her sister Ruth lives, and her brother Frank and his wife and children, Stephanie, Debbie, Sandy and Jack came from La Puente to join them. Betty, you may remember, is the new president of the Sierra Madre Women's Baseball Auxiliary and tells me that this year, in addition to Little League for 8 to 12 year olds, there'll be the Pony-Colts so two older groups, 13 and 14, and 15 and 16 can play and be well matched.

The Philip Mitchells of 175 Monte Vista joined the Richard Lawyers around the corner for eggnog but tried to give Philip, who is also a teacher, a little quiet during the brief vacation, despite the activities of their children, Donna and Linda.

The Raymond D. Andrews family of 614 Fairview Ave., could boast of three generations with the same name this holiday season. They entertained the families of two married daughter and their son; Mr. and Mrs. William Markhoff (Patricia) with Katherine, Daniel and Barbara, from Burlingame; Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Burhenn (Regina) with Caroline and Tommy, from Arcadia; and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Andrews Jr., with Michelle, Julie Rae, Wendy and Raymond Andrews III from Buena Park.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Dobbs of 159 S. Sierra Madre Blvd. (Rayne is a member of the Newcomer Club) were hosts to visitors all the way from Milford, Conn.; Mrs. Lillian Card and Mrs. Lucille Anderson. In addition to the viewing of the Tournament of Roses which all visitors look forward to, the Dobbs included in their guests' itinerary a New Year's Eve jaunt to see Jack Benny at the Carousel Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Jegen of 1410 Tropical Ave. entertained Mr. and Mrs. Donald Casturo of Newport Beach over the holidays. The boys had interesting outings. Bruce, who goes to Sequoia School, went on an expedition to the Cabrillo Marine Museum in San Pedro. Robert was in Mexico on a desert trip for Christmas week with members of the Tom Sawyer Boys' Club. While there they met pen friends of a school in Mexico and the amigos exchanged gifts, with as much Spanish as they could remember from last year's classes.

The Jerry Ashers with Billy and Kathy have had a really busy holiday season. Festivities included having the family on Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Asher, Sr. from Aptos; Mrs. Asher's mother, Mrs. C. E. Anderson, from Los Angeles; Jerry's aunt, Mrs. Hayward Richards, from Claremont; his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. William Richards from Pasadena and Mr. and Mrs. Art Lutz from Glendale, and the Richards' niece, Miss Becky Lindahl, visiting from Portland, Oregon. On New Year's Eve they also had a house full for their party. Among the guests were: Floyd and Donna Glass, recently married and newcomers to Sierra Madre; Marcella and Gene Colbert; Veronica and Hugh Warden; Arlie and John Hahn; Rosalind and Art Schoepke; Diane and Keith Applegate.

The Roger Johnsons of 1725 Santa Anita were another very busy couple. Sunday after Christmas they entertained three couples at a dinner party: Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Laufer, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bleeker, and Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Wood. Sunday after New Year's their Open House included these guests: Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Kenneth Scott; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meyer from Sierra Madre; from San Marino, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Schadt; from Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huss. And from Arcadia, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Schuster, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ogilvie, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Trevor, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Reiter, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Mishuck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Evans, Mr. and Mrs. William Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Julin, Mrs. Dorothy Sewell and Mrs. Robert M. Fisher.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The following is an open letter to the mayor and city council of the City of Sierra Madre:

Gentlemen:

There is grave need for re-organization, toward security and resultant economy, in our city engineering department. We understand that Los Angeles County can give at least equal, and widely experienced, service and will do so with a flexible cancellation agreement. Their charges are ten dollars per consulting hour, plus overhead. Our present costs are fifteen dollars per consulting hour plus city overhead. This arrangement, if satisfactory, would change the building needs.

You are expecting an increase of over fifty per cent of our present population, so that the central park open space should be increased, not forever limited and traffic hazards increased.

May we know the basic facts of our city's safety, including, of course, fire and water?

May we vote on our city hall location and on the inclusion of public recreation rooms, with their dining facilities, in our city hall?

—JESSIE E. DUNNING

Dear Editor:

Things seem to be shaping up to make 1966 a real year of decision for Rapid Transit.

Assemblyman Tom Carrell's interim committee on Transportation and Commerce is drafting what appears to be very practical and acceptable legislation. It makes provision for long-term construction financing as well as the preliminary funds necessary to take the Rapid Transit Bond question to the public. Governor Brown has indicated he wants the bill introduced at the special budget session early next year. So here we go!

Since I know you are a staunch supporter of Rapid Transit, let me urge you to make your opinions heard in the right places in this crucial time. Even before the session starts, our legislators need to understand that there is a genuine groundswell of public opinion behind the Rapid Transit concept. Increasingly intolerable traffic and successive smog alerts have brought the issue home to many people recently.

We'll keep you posted on the progress of Rapid Transit and the legislative program. Meanwhile, I'm enclosing a reiteration of our Board's official position. And I'll be dropping in to see you again soon.

Best personal regards — and wishing you a happy holiday season and a successful New Year.

—WILLIAM C. WEIMER

Boller's Spent An Enjoyable Holiday

The joy of the holiday season for Judge and Mrs. Ardene D. Boller of Santa Anita Highlands was heightened by two sets of grandchildren, one in Oregon, the other in California.

Leaving Arcadia on December 17, the Bollers drove to Mill Mar Ranch in the Rogue River Valley, where they spent more than a week with daughter Pam's family. They enjoyed the beauties of a white Christmas, but more important, they had the fun of watching Mark, five years; Scott, three years, and Leigh, ten months old, "greet Santa" and perform with the many gifts. The other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Morley H. Pingle of Los Angeles, formerly of Arcadia, were unable to be at the ranch for Christmas as usual, so they missed the "talents" of the youngsters!

Pam's husband, Allan E. Pingle, runs the cattle ranch while she teaches school in Butte Falls, Oregon. In addition, both are taking graduate courses at Southern Oregon College in Ashland, making them very busy people.

Returning home in time to welcome the advent of '66, the Bollers entertained Sierra Madre residents: son Donovan S. Boller, wife Jan, and grandsons Scott and Dan, aged three and two years respectively, on New Year's Day. Mr. and Mrs. John Arch Ross of Bradbury and Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Wheeler of Arcadia joined in the celebration also, enjoying the parade and three bowl games on colored TV.

They had the pleasure of entertaining Roger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hopkins who came down to be with the family from Denver, Colorado. Coleene said they packed an awful lot of exciting sightseeing into the two weeks they were here.

One evening they had a small dinner party for them and to bid farewell to their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Wolfgang Kutter who will soon be departing for Germany, where Mr. Kutter will be working for the duPont Company. The other guests were Miss Norma Downey, Earl Cherniak, Miss Munnhall, Mrs. Frances Brookover with Lynne and Wendy, and the Hopkins four children, Beth, Carol, Susan, and Gary.

The Rosemary Cottage Brodge Group No. 2 met at the home of Mrs. James Smith this week for the first luncheon and card party of the new year. The guests were Mrs. Wells Pleas, Mrs. Sidney Parker, Mrs. Gene Rode, Mrs. Robert Mueller, Mrs. Ken Christensen, Mrs. Charles Goldsworthy, Mrs. Dominic Gienregorio, Mrs. Don Hays, Mrs. Donald Stoll, and Mrs. Charles Hardison.

Speaking of Peg Christensen, I talked to her the other day about the family (Ken, Jig, Kim, and Kip) holiday in Sun Valley. They went up for the second consecutive Christmas season and renewed a lot of acquaintances from last year. The excitement for the year was the attendance of several members of the Kennedy clan, including Jackie and her entourage of secret service men. They all had a ball together skiing down "Half Dollar" slope, and after the first two days, the snow was absolutely ideal.

The whole Christensen family took lessons again this year and are becoming quite proficient in the sport. (At least I think they are, they all came home sans splints!).

Dr. and Mrs. Rand Lewis of Mesaloe Lane have been entertaining their nephew, Howard Lewis, who is spending a little time with them before joining his Marine buddies in Viet Nam. They are showing him some of the sights of Southern California.

Lastly, there are a couple of social events coming up for the weekend that promise a shot in the arm for the '66 social season. One is the Alverno Heights Parents Association dinner dance and the other the Huntingdon Memorial Clinic Auxiliary's annual function. This year it is "A Night To Remember," at the Civic Auditorium, starring Nelson Eddy, Gale Sherwood, Tex Beneke and his Orchestra, and Eileen O'Connell.

Valley Hadassah To Hold Annual Youth Aliyah Luncheon February 1

Celebrating the 32nd anniversary of the inception of Hadassah's Youth Aliyah program, will be members of the San Gabriel Valley Hadassah when they meet for the annual Youth Aliyah Luncheon on Tuesday, February 1, at the La Canada County Club, 5500 Godbey Drive, La Canada, at 11:30 a.m.

The Youth Aliyah program has helped resettle and rehabilitate in Israel more than 120,000 Jewish young people from 80 lands. Founded in 1934, Youth Aliyah has since then graduated thousands of skilled young people who constitute a potent and positive force in the agricultural, industrial, and cultural development of the country. There are some 12,000 young people now in training in 267 Youth Aliyah villages, agricultural settlements and special schools and centers in Israel, where they are taught academic and vocational subjects and engage in recreational and cultural activities.

Special centers have been devoted to the treatment of the emotionally disturbed child. Hadassah women of the San Gabriel Valley, particularly dedicated to the physically sick and the emotionally disturbed child, this years are concentrating upon their theme "Forget-Me-Not," the sick, hungry, ill-treated, frightened illiterate children are the special targets for their humanitarian goals.

Mrs. Gerson Horance, president of the valley Hadassah, has announced proceeds from this luncheon will go for the care and needs for the rehabilitation of these children.

Mrs. Abe Gould, chairman of the day, and Mrs. Pearl Golden, co-chairman, have stressed the need for training more Youth Aliyah children in agriculture, mechanics, and noted that Youth Aliyah already has established a maritime school in Nitza-

Registration Stations To Be Activated

Voters registration centers have been activated at county fire stations and will begin operations starting Saturday under a program sponsored by the League of Women Voters and authorized by the Board of Supervisors, it was announced recently by Supervisor Warren M. Dorn.

County Registrar of Voters Benjamin S. Hite and County Fire Chief Keith Klinger are cooperating in the program initiated by the League as a means of making it more convenient for prospective voters to register in time for the California primary election in June, Dorn said.

To meet the needs of the program, 1600 county firemen have been trained as deputy voting registrars by the training division of the County Fire Department. At least two firemen will be on duty at each station to register voters, according to Hite and Klinger. All of the county fire stations are participating in the registration effort.

Special Auditions For Ramona

Special auditions will be held for the role of Ramona, on Saturday morning, February 5 in the colorful Ramona Bowl, Hemet, site of the 39th annual season of the famous historical drama. The Ramona Outdoor Play is to be held on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, April 16, 17, 23, 24, 30 and May 1.

Victor Jory distinguished actor, and a former star of the Ramona Play, will stage the play again this year and will conduct the auditions. Maurice Jara, who will again play the romantic lead of the Indian hero, Alessandro, will also be on hand for the try-outs.

General auditions for other roles in the pageant-like drama, will be held from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 5 p.m. on February 6.

Advance orders for the 39th season are said to be ahead of previous years. Mail orders should be sent directly to the Ramona Pageant Association, Hemet, Calif. Orders are now being processed as they are received reports Willard Councilman, general manager.

Supervisor Bonelli Looks To 1966 As A Great Year

"I am optimistic in regard to the overall outlook for the economy of the County of Los Angeles and its 76 cities for the 1966 year," Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli recently declared.

"Nonetheless," he continued, "any degree of optimism is contingent upon several factors in the economic climate of the county; namely:

"1.—Benefit of State Senate reapportionment to our urban-suburban areas cannot be fully realized or achieved until the 1967 General Legislative Session when the senators from our 14-plus new senatorial districts take office. Accordingly, every effort must be made for the achieving of property tax relief in the 1966 Budget Session in February.

"2.—A property tax limitation of two per cent in relation to the market value of property must be enacted at the Budget Session. All tax reform at the State Legislative meeting in Sacramento will be meaningless if we fail to protect the people's ability to continue owning properties in our cities, our county and our state.

"3.—Every effort must be made to obtain the Governor's inclusion of the property tax measure on the Special Call in February, 1966. Assessment reflecting a two per cent tax limit based on market value is the only guarantee of protection for our overburdened property taxpayers and can and will assure a continued healthy business climate in our cities, county and state.

"4.—Additional sources of revenue, if and when the need is determined and substantiated, must be from new sources which would result in a minimal affect upon property owners and the tax structure of business and industry.

"5.—The 1966-67 County General Budget will require close scrutiny and attention as to its economy and efficiency, if a 'holding the line' in the tax rate for the fiscal year is to be achieved. The Board of Supervisor's pledge this year (1966) only can be attained through a sincere desire and effort on the part of each Board member that there be no tax increase over the 1965-66 County tax rate. The pressure on the Board of Supervisors for increased personnel and other demands will be great, requiring a steadfast position that only mandatory budget increase items and actions in the legal and best interest of the public's health, safety and welfare be provided for in the 1966-67 County budget.

"6.—Expenditure improvement is essential in the County gas tax fund monies in concert with our cities toward alleviating the deficiencies in many major and vitaly needed road construction projects and in accelerating and expediting their early completion.

"7.—Continuation in the pursuing and overcoming of the time lag on County flood control storm drain bond issue projects, voted by the people, is imperative so as to appreciably reduce the construction starting time schedule, through concentrating with the cities in expediting the necessary planning and engineering work and awarding of contracts from the 1964 flood control bond measure.

"8.—Legislative authority should be given for the public to vote in 1966 on acceptance or rejection of financial support for a mass rapid transit system requiring limited subsidization and governmental obligation bonds. A public expression is needed prior to the implementation of any decisive transit plan of action.

"All of the above points are of major significance and importance to the residents of Los Angeles County, and, in addition, can have a considerable bearing on the results of our optimism and what the year of 1966 finally will show."

The Dillard's At The Ice House Through Jan. 2

Seven days of The Dillard's are in store for habitués of The Ice House in Glendale when the Capitol recording artists return Monday, Dec. 27, with their crackling brand of humor and music. The Dillard's have recently broken into the "top 40" radio and recording market with their single, "The Last Thing on My Mind." They will, of course, be the big draw at Glendale's Ice House for New Year's Eve and will end their seven-day stand on Jan. 2. The Dillard's have all promised not to be serious and to be great, as usual.

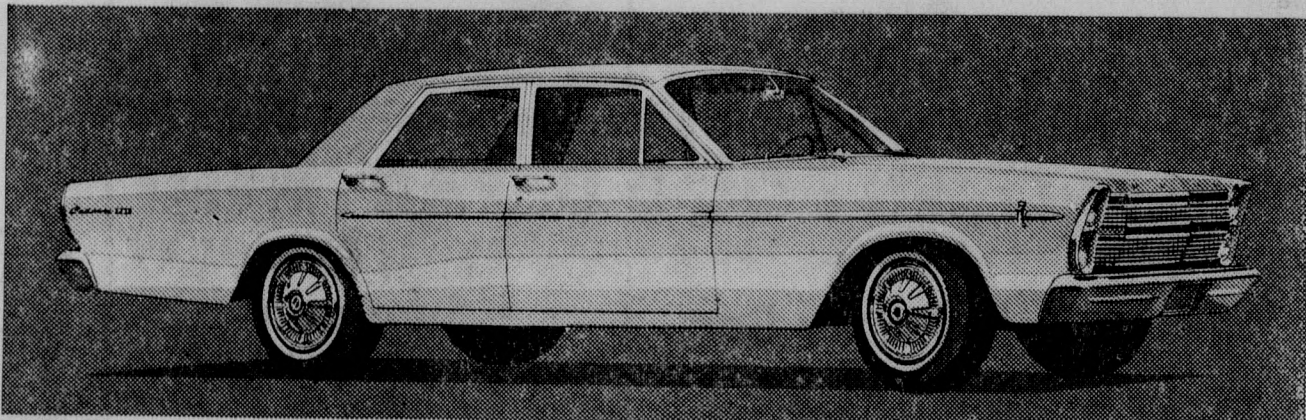

A new comedy team of Dick Clair and Jenna McMahon premieres at The Ice House in Glendale on Dec. 28 for a one-week stand. The act is reputed to be "the one to watch," and they seem destined to greatness on TV. They met at a nudist colony.

Ben Short and Dave Rene open the show and provide their usual brand of music. It's a good week at The Ice House in Glendale—Dec. 27 through Jan. 2.

Back in the 190's San Francisco was one of the world's most active whaling ports.
